

INT. LEXI'S BEDROOM (EVENING)

LEXI is sitting on her bed as KIM is brushing her hair while looking in the mirror

LEXI

I am so happy your finally staying over! I can't wait to wear my new dress I bought for the club tonight.

KIM

I know! Now we can finally catch up on gossip.

LEXI

We hang out and gossip all the time.

KIM

True. Actually I wanted to ask you something. Ok, so the other day I noticed Jeff wasn't acting like himself. He was being all distant and I was wondering why so I asked him "What's up?"

LEXI

What did he say?

KIM

He said he was just tired and stressed from midterms.

LEXI

Ok. Well ... there you go.

KIM

I don't think I believe him. I think there is another girl but I don't have any proof.

LEXI

You're being paranoid. How did you even know? Get dressed girl.

LEXI starts to put make up on. KIM gets up and heads to the closet

KIM

I'm not stupid Lexi. He is always anxious to leave my house to get home all the time and he started dressing up all nice and wearing cologne. I have known him since high school. The last time he got all dressed up and smelling nice was right before he asked me out. He's thinking about someone else and I want to know who. Do you know anything?

LEXI

No. I think your being paranoid.

LEXI spays herself with perfume. KIM smells the mist and looks at LEXI

KIM

What is that?

LEXI

Oh. Chanel number 5. Do you want some?

KIM

No. Where have I smelt that from? Anyway, I do have something that proves he's cheating though. The other day I found an eyelash curler in his room. I asked him who's it was and he said it was his moms which is weird because his mom barley wears any make up. So, I confiscated it.

LEXI

(Not listening; looking in her bag)

That's great honey. Hey can I use your eyelash curler? I just lost mine the other day

KIM looks at the curler and back at LEXI

KIM

Is this yours Lexi?

LEXI

Oh my god! What are you doing with it?

KIM

(Laughs)

No idea.

(pause)

I was thinking. My stomach kinda hurts. Would you care if we stayed in. As I said we have...

(pause)

a lot to talk about.

LEXI

Ugh really? Ok I guess we have all weekend. Let me get my PJ's on.

Her cell phone rings. She looks at who is calling and smiles

LEXI (CONT'D)

I have to take this. I'll be right back.

KIM

Oh, I'll be waiting.
